ABOUT US

The Society for Investigative Dermatology was born out of a vision to serve a segment of science previously unrepresented by the medical societies of the United States: investigative dermatology. The founders saw a need for an organization with a devotion to cutaneous investigation, rather than clinical work, and to promote investigative dermatology to a fully respected position among the medical specialties. In tandem with the establishment of the society, they sought to develop a new scientific journal that would act as a singular resource for investigative work in cutaneous biology. Previously, this research had been scattered among the non-dermatology journals and had largely been completed outside the specialty of investigative dermatology. This vision was realized when the SID was founded, bylaws were adopted and a board of nine directors was appointed on June 10, 1937 at the Hotel Dennis in Atlantic City, New Jersey. The Journal of Investigative Dermatology (JID) was launched, with Marion B. Sulzberger as its first editor, and the first Annual Meeting was held in April 1938 in New York City.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Online submission of abstracts began on October 15, 2009 at <http://sid.abstractcentral.com>

Rules and Regulations

Only one paper or poster may be read or presented by the same author at the Meeting, although a presenter may be a co-author of any number of papers. The material must not have been published prior to submission of the abstract or presented at any national meeting prior to the date of presentation at the SID Annual Meeting. Simultaneous submission of the same abstract to other meetings is prohibited.

Publication of Abstracts

All abstracts will be published on the Abstract Central website by March 15, 2010 and in the April 2010 issue of the Journal of Investigative Dermatology (JID), scheduled for print publication by April 1, 2010.

Abstracts will also be available via JID advance online publication in mid-March. Abstract acceptance letters will be sent on February 17 via email. Meeting Programs will be available online as of April 1, 2010 as well as on-site at the meeting.

Abstract Fee and Author Information

The publication/processing fee is $50 US and must be paid via the internet at the time of submission.

Presentation

The SID Committee on Scientific Programs reviews all abstracts without knowing the identity of authors. All abstracts, including those selected for oral presentation, must be presented as posters. Further information regarding submission of abstracts can be found on the online submission website <http://sid.abstractcentral.com>.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Registration Fees

Category	On or Before 3/19/10	After 3/19/10
SID Member	$500	$550
Non-Member	$675	$775
Resident/Post-Doc Fellow/Student	$300	$325
Companion	$150	$150

To receive the early/discounted registration fee, register online at www.sidnet.org in the Annual Meeting section. Registrations will be accepted by the SID until April 9, 2010, after which you must register on-site in Atlanta. On-site registration will take place at the SID registration counter in the Hilton Atlanta beginning Wednesday, May 5, 2010.

The SID invites all residents, post-doc fellows, and students to attend the Meeting and submit abstracts for review. Residents, post-doc fellows, and students receive a discounted rate of $300 before March 19, 2010 and $325 after March 19, 2010. To receive these rates, residents, post-doc fellows and students must mail or fax to the SID office a letter from their department chair or program director verifying their status. Letters must be signed and on official university/institution letterhead. Registrations will not be processed until all documentation is received. If registering on-site, please bring the required documentation with you or you will be charged regular on-site registration rates.

All cancellations and changes to Annual Meeting registration must be made in writing to the SID office, by March 19, 2010.

Cancellations made after March 19, 2010 will not receive a refund. No exceptions can be made. Refunds are issued only after the Meeting less a $100 administrative fee. If registering online, please click the submit button only once. Duplicate registration forms may result in your credit card being charged twice. If you feel a problem in the online submission platform has occurred and you think that you have been charged multiple times, please contact the SID administrative office at (216) 579-9300 to review. A confirmation letter will be sent within two weeks. If you do not receive a confirmation after two weeks, please contact the SID office at (216) 579-9300 or at meetings@sidnet.org.

Complete details regarding the registration fees and the Annual Meeting can be found on the SID website at www.sidnet.org.

Atlanta, GA 30303

Reservations: 1.800.HILTONS. Request the group rate for the Society for Investigative Dermatology.

City of Atlanta

World-class restaurants, festive nightlife, six professional sports teams and an abundance of exciting attractions and events help make Atlanta the center for entertainment in the South. From the city's role in the Civil War to the celebration of the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games, Atlanta's historical attractions promise both education and entertainment. Diverse restaurants feature cuisine from around the globe prepared by world-renowned chefs. Atlanta is blessed with a mild climate and southern hospitality making it enjoyable for tourists year-round. For more information on all Atlanta has to offer, visit the Atlanta Convention and Visitors Bureau's Web site at www.atlanta.net.

NETWORKING & SOCIAL EVENTS

The Annual Meeting will feature networking and social events that give attendees the opportunity to interact with colleagues. Enjoy the following events, and make new professional connections.

Welcome Reception

On Wednesday, May 5, 2010 from 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., there will be a Welcome Reception to kick off the Meeting. All attendees are invited, free of charge, to gather for drinks and hors d'oeuvres and mingle with colleagues.

Trainee Dinner

Over the past several years, the SID has encouraged meetings between residents and post-doc fellows. To promote collegiality, the SID annually presents a Trainee Dinner, formerly called the Resident/Fellow Dinner Sessions—small group meetings in which senior and junior scientists and a group of four to six residents and post-doc fellows discuss issues over dinner. These sessions provide an opportunity to talk informally about subject matter of interest including research opportunities in dermatology, life in academia or how to combine clinical work with research. Seating for this event is limited, and early registration is strongly encouraged.

Social Event at Georgia Aquarium

With more than eight million gallons of fresh and marine water and more aquatic life than found in any other aquarium, you are sure to see things you've never seen before! The Georgia Aquarium promises wonder and excitement around every corner. The five distinct galleries within the Georgia Aquarium depict five different habitats, ranging from arctic waters to tropical oceans. Unlike most aquariums, the Georgia Aquarium does not follow a linear layout, instead allowing guests to decide their own path and the order in which they visit each gallery. The Georgia Aquarium is home to whale sharks, the world's largest fish, the only manta rays in the U.S. and thousands of other aquatic life guaranteed to "wow" guests old and young.

The Social Event is a great opportunity to catch up with old friends and meet new friends while exploring the aquarium.

ASSOCIATE & ANCILLARY MEETINGS

A number of exciting symposia will be organized by associate groups in conjunction with the SID Meeting. All Meeting attendees are invited to attend these sessions. Information and details about the events are available directly from the SID Meeting website at www.sidnet.org.

To reserve a meeting room for your group, please contact Carolyn Slade, Director of Meetings and Events, at the SID at 216-579-9300 ext. 304.

EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

The SID welcomes exhibitors from all facets of dermatology related industry. Whether your business is pharmaceuticals, cosmetics, medical equipment, publications, products and services or beyond, exhibiting at the SID Annual Meeting will facilitate interaction with an international audience of physicians and basic scientists engaged in skin research.

Exhibitor Benefits

- Two complimentary Meeting registrations—these all access registrations allow your representatives to work in the exhibit hall and attend any non-ticketed Meeting sessions or events
- Listing on the SID website

Rates (based on a 10' x 10' booth)

$1,800 if reserved prior to January 15, 2010 (US funds)

$2,000 if reserved after January 15, 2010 (US funds)

Those interested in further information regarding exhibitor opportunities should contact Carolyn Slade at 216-579-9300 ext. 304 or via email to slade@sidnet.org.

COMMERCIAL OPPORTUNITIES

WHY PARTNER WITH THE SID?

The SID is committed to providing educational opportunities to physicians, residents and skin researchers. We value our relationships with industry partners: we rely on you to exhibit, showcase and represent the latest advances in products and services at the Annual Meeting to educate attendees. We appreciate your generous support, which allows us to continue expanding our educational offerings.

The SID Annual Meeting has grown substantially in attendance and stature since 2003. In the past several years the SID has undertaken a number of strategic initiatives that have propelled the organization toward what it is today—a leading purveyor of educational programming that advances and promotes the sciences relevant to skin health and disease.

If you are interested in supporting the Annual Meeting, please contact Jim Rumsey at 216-579-9300 / rumsey@sidnet.org or Becky Minnillo at 216-579-9300 / minnillo@sidnet.org.

COMMERCIAL OPPORTUNITIES

Patient Art Exhibit

In 2003, the SID partnered with the Coalition of Skin Diseases, a non-profit organization of 24 patient advocacy groups, to produce an art exhibit entitled “The Layers of Skin Disease.” Over a dozen works of art were submitted by patients suffering from skin disease and were displayed in a special area at the SID Annual Meeting. The exhibit continues to be well received and has grown dramatically through 2008. The SID seeks a corporate partner to underwrite costs associated with expanding and producing this exhibition for 2010 and to ensure that it becomes a permanent fixture for all future SID Annual Meetings. The artwork will soon be featured on a series of covers of The Journal of Investigative Dermatology (JID), providing another commercial support opportunity for your company.

We offer a variety of ways for industry to partner with the SID to ensure your maximum visibility and support of the Annual Meeting. We welcome commercial support from a variety of sectors and will work diligently to acknowledge your generous support. Please call the SID office at 216-579-9300 to reserve your commercial support opportunity today!

For inquiries or to propose an idea for commercial support, please contact Jim Rumsey at 216-579-9300 / rumsey@sidnet.org or Becky Minnillo at 216-579-9300 / minnillo@sidnet.org.

See you in Atlanta!
