

JID Journals' Social Media Policy and Code of Conduct

JID Journals' social media channels are intended to convey information about the journals and the articles they publish. The views and opinions posted on JID Journals' social media channels do not necessarily reflect the views, opinions, or policies of the JID Journals, SID, its Board, or staff. We reserve the right to remove comments we deem, in our sole discretion, to be inappropriate.

Users should not:

- Post copyrighted or trademarked material or material protected by other intellectual property rights.
- Use JID Journal's social media platforms to comment on medical, legal, or litigious matters.
- Post derogatory, demeaning, inflammatory, offensive, disrespectful, hateful, sales-oriented, or otherwise inappropriate comments.

Users should:

- Maintain a courteous and respectful demeanor in their comments and posts.
- Represent themselves and their organizations truthfully and professionally.
- Recognize that social media conversations include a variety of professionals, patients, policymakers, reporters, and the public.
